For Georgetown Varsity Athletes only:

If you will be a Varsity Athlete, you must answer the following three questions about any outside resources that you have been awarded for the 2009-2010 academic year. Report the answers in Section B above under "Athletes Only".

Q. 1 - Was athletic ability or participation a major criterion when you were selected for this award?

Q. 2 - Was athletic ability or participation considered at all when you were selected for this award, e.g. did you list your athletic ability or participation as an extracurricular activity when you applied for this award?

Q. 3 – Is the group (or individual) giving you this award directly associated with Georgetown University as an alumnus or donor, OR did receiving this award restrict your choice of school in any way?

Section C: Financial Aid Recipients

Georgetown may be required by federal law and institutional policy to adjust your financial aid award to include your outside awards. If your aid must be adjusted, please rank the following from 1 to 2, in the order you would prefer the outside award(s) to adjust your financial aid.

_____ Reduce my Federal Work Study award

_____ Reduce my loan(s)
